Foreword

Nepal is reach country with variety of world class and nature based destination. Nepal is ideal for revealing untouched, undiscovered land. As we have the mightiest peaks and mountains lying in Nepal, it is dreamland for mountaineers and trekkers. In 1949, Nepal's peaks and mountains were opened for climbing. Since then, mountaineering has been a major tourism activity and considered as prolific center in terms of revenue generation for the country. So, the government of Nepal has opened 414 peaks for mountaineering activities by adding 104 peaks in 2014.

For the purpose of promotion, keeping records of brave heroes who has conquered the top of the mountain and encouraging those who have love and wish to score the mountain, Department of Tourism has been publishing 'Mountaineering in Nepal: Facts and Figure' annually. It provides factual information about the rules and regulation of mountaineering in Nepal, opened peaks and unclimbed peaks and the name of successful summiters till 2019.

I believe that information inscribed in this publication will prove to be valuable for those who have love and wants to know more about mountain, mountaineer, researcher, planner and policy maker who involved in mountain and tourism sector of Nepal.

Finally, I would like to thank all who are involved in bringing out this publication and reassert that Department of Tourism always welcome positive, creative and constructive comments and suggestion for improving this publication in the years to come.

Do's and Don'ts

NEPAL

The Nepalese people are friendly and hospitable by nature and the tourist in general will have no difficulty in adjustment. All the same, one may be confused regarding some customs, traditions and manners as in coming into any unfamiliar society. Nepal like any other country has its own ways of regulating life though it might be different in degrees to each individual visitor. We want you to observe and see the way the Nepalese people live and share that with them. It is in this spirit we offer you some practical guidelines that could help make your stay here delightful, homely and rewarding.

The Religious way of life

Religion is an integral and deep-rooted part of Nepali life. Temples, images, sacred paintings are to be seen every where. Nepal has been declared a religion secular state, though Hinduism is followed by nearly 80% of the population. Nevertheless, Buddhism has also important place in this country. Hinduism and Buddhism are so closely connected in Nepal that it would take a life time's study to understand the complexities of country's religious life. All deities are worshipped by Hindus and Buddhists alike, and feasts and festivals are shared. For centuries both have cherished mutual regard and respect for one another's tradition. The following are some hints regarding religious matters.

Visitors to a Hindu temple or a Buddhist shrine are expected to be unshoed as a mark of respect. In fact, a pair of open sandals is more convenient and comfortable while visiting the temples and stupas.

- It is better not to touch offerings or persons when they are on way to shrines.
- Beef is prohibited among both the Hindus and Buddhists. No female animal is killed for food.
- You may not be allowed entry to the inner sanctuaries of temples and stupas.
- You may be interested to take snaps of temples, stupas and monuments. Generally temples, stupas and monuments are permitted to be photographed, but it is better to have permission before using your cameras.

Social Outlooks:

Since the majority of our people live in rural areas, they have an outlook of life that is simple and traditional. In fact, they take special delight in the company of foreign visitors. But there are certain things that are alien or embarrassing to our people. Here then are a few things to keep in mind.

It is best be decently clad when visiting any place. Sun and beach wear is not the ideal, when roaming around the city or village. Briefs, shorts, bare shoulder and backs may not be appreciated. You need not to be stiff and overdressed, but just comfortably and decently covered.

Do not take seriously if a Nepali lady hesitates to shake hands with you. In Nepal, people and specially the ladies, do not normally shake hands when they greet one another, but instead press the palms together in a prayer- like gesture known as "Namaste"

Public displays of affection between man and woman are frowned upon. Do not do something that is totally alien to our environment.

We are hard on drugs abuse, trafficking in, and possessions of drugs are taken as serious offences.

Beggars:

Cheap charity breeds beggars but does not solve their basic problem. Therefore do not encourage beggary by being benevolent.

Currency:

Non-Indian visitors are not allowed to import or export Indian currency. Foreign currency is to be exchanged with authorized foreign exchange dealers or at official bank exchange counters only.

Some other Important Hints:

- Beware of touts who claim to be representatives of companies and offer to take you bargain hunting.
- Use hotel safety boxes for your valuables. Do not leave cash and other valuable things lying around in the room.
- Table manners in Nepal are quite different from those at home. In typical and traditional Nepali house, plates, knives, forks and spoons may be absent from the dinner table. While eating Nepalese people use their right hand, but this does not mean, however that the guests are not to use forks, knives and spoons.
- Any food or utensil touched by the used knife or spoon or fingers, or by lips or into which spittle has fallen is considered "Jutho" which means contaminated. It would humiliate a person if such food were offered to him. Nor should the dish containing such food be used again without its being properly washed.
- If you want to give a present to your host or hostess, please do not be surprised if they lay it said unopened. In Nepal, to open a parcel in the presence of the guests is not supposed to be a good manner.
